

ADVISING ON HIGHER LEVEL SKILLS FOR A CHANGING ECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

This conference is an opportunity for advisers to share good practice on how to support prospective students aspiring to study in Higher Education. It will explore questions such as:

- * How can I earn and learn through flexible study programmes?
- * How can I keep my skills up to date through further study?
- * How can I study whilst still at work?

Delegates can choose two workshops from the following:

Workshop One

"Your future East Midlands" – Introducing a regional website for courses, qualifications and careers – facilitated by Neil Raven, Manager for Aimhigher East Midlands

Workshop Two

"Learning resources to support construction industry training and development needs" – facilitated by David Tooth, Construction Sector Manager for Leap Ahead

Workshop Three

"CHEA (Collaborative Higher Education Alliance) and A2CHEA – Making higher level learning local" – facilitated by Catherine Spavold, Project Coordinator for CHEA and A2CHEA

Workshop Four

"How Higher Education institutions support the 14-19 diploma" – facilitated by Lucy Arnold, Access & Vocational Manager and Progression Champion (Engineering) for The University of Nottingham

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The conference is aimed at the following professionals:

- * Careers advisors
- * Connexions personal advisors
- * IAG advisors
- * FE/HE admissions teams
- * HE widening participation staff
- * Nextstep partners
- * Course leaders/tutors
- * Marketing personnel

WHEN AND WHERE?

Tuesday 12 May 2009 from 10.00am – 2.00pm
National Fluid Power Centre, Carlton Road, Worksop, S81 7HP.

To ensure your place on this FREE event, please book by Monday 27 April 2009 by emailing leapahead@ntu.ac.uk or call 01158 488638 for more details