

Want to work in the Public Sector ? A wide variety of jobs available:

- Police
 - Fire Service
 - Local Government
 - Borough and District Councils
 - The Health Service
 - Schools and Colleges
- and many many more

Lloyd Spicer (pictured left) says that he enjoys working in local government because everyday is different. You get to meet people from many different backgrounds and experience. Some of the benefits include the great working environment and the car loan scheme.

Melanie Newell is a Carpentry and Joinery Apprentice working for the South Holland District Council. She loves working in the public sector and says: "I am working with the community and meeting a variety of different people which is giving me more confidence."
